

Discover With Diane...

FALL & WINTER, 2020

A Note From Diane

Who is your hero? Because there are so many admirable qualities that go into the “hero” mix, I’m sure you can list more than one person. One of my personal (fictional) favorites is Forrest Gump. If you have never seen this movie, you are missing out! I can watch it over and over again! Let me explain why...Forrest Gump was honest to a fault, loyal to those he loved and deeply proud of his country. Even after traveling the world and seeing the “reality” that was out there, he stayed the course. Forrest Gump simplified life by replacing barriers with solutions, even planning for his future in the midst of war and chaos. (The movie drives this point home.) His Midwestern, Southern mentality is something we can all relate to and admire! Following this lead...I’m choosing to move forward by staying true to myself, looking for solutions and planning for the future! Yes, this does include our travel adventures. :)
